

Read and Understand

Ch. 20

Find the two occasions where Reg misheard what Steve was saying.

Create your own examples of how Steve's words could be misheard.

Think about syllables and rhyme scheme.

Reflect and Respond

Ch. 21

"Something that children often don't realise about adults is that they can still be shy and suffer from self doubt."

Create a diary entry for Mary or Mr Hunter, describing their feelings for each other.

Explore Some More

Ch. 22:

"Tony danced and stomped around the room like some sort of graceful hippo."

Come up with some alternative similes for the one above.

Create Something Great

Ch. 20

Draw a diagram of your school, showing all main locations and entrances. Plot a route that will get you to the headteacher's office without being seen.

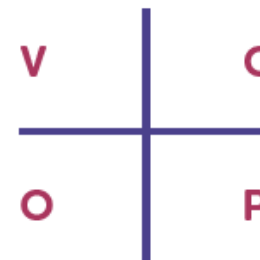

Text: The Supervillain Next Door (ch. 20-25)

Explore Some More

Ch. 23:

VCOP Hunt

Connect 4

Ch. 24:

"Superheroes must only use their powers for good and to help others."

Do you agree? What would you like to do if you had powers?

Read and Understand

Ch. 25:

- What new information do we find out about members of the Domino Club?
- What do you think will happen next?

Create Something Great

You are a reporter for the school newspaper. Write an article about what has happened in the school.

- Use an eye-catching headline
- Include accurate detail of events
- Think about quotes from witnesses.

